

Cookies Policy

CWG uses cookies to help ensure the security of customer transactions and improve the performance of the site. A cookie is a small text file sent by a web server to a client's browsing device. The cookies used by CWG do not contain any personal information and account or password information. Cookies can be used for a variety of purposes, for example, by allowing a website to identify page requests made by logged-in users and to identify each user's preferences in order to customize the display of the website to the user. For more information on the use of cookies, please read the CWG's separate cookies policy. The CWG may share information about the use of the website of visitors to the company's website with reputable advertising companies, so that the CWG's Internet banner ads on the company's website and other websites can target the target audience. To do this, a pixel tag is used to indicate which page the customer has visited. The information collected by the advertising company through the use of pixel tags does not identify an individual.

Customer rights

The Client has the right to request all information relevant to the CWG. Upon written request to the Customer Service Team (support@cwgmarkets.com) by email, Customer has the right to request correction of any inaccuracies, objection to the use of its information, and restrictions on the CWG's use of its information for any particular purpose.

Changes to this privacy statement

The CWG will revise and update this privacy statement from time to time, promptly post a new version of the privacy statement on the website, and post a notice on the website to inform all customers of the change. Customer agrees to use the revised Electronic Privacy Policy posted on the Site as the actual notice sent to it. Any dispute regarding the CWG Privacy Statement shall be subject to the notice and the terms and conditions of the CWG. CWG encourages customers to periodically review this privacy statement to understand the information collected by the CWG, how it is used, and to which institutions or individuals the CWG will disclose it. If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, you should contact the CWG Customer Service Representative.